

STAGE 1&2 ESL

TEXT PRODUCTION: ORAL PRESENTATION

Task:

After watching Happy and discussing key issues that arise from the film, you will read, discuss and analyse four to five short texts selected by the teacher on issues associated with happiness in the modern world (positive psychology).

You will then give an oral presentation to the class on a topic related to happiness and well-being.

Topic:

The title of your talk should be one of the following:

- 1) Happiness is the key to economic growth
- 2) Happiness is the key to success
- 3) Happiness is the key to education
- 4) Happiness is the key to health

Content:

Your talk must present a balance of academic information based on your research and your own personal opinion and experience.

Format:

Your presentation should include visual aids to enhance your message. Examples could include Prezi, Emaze or PPT.

Weighting: 10% of final grade

Length: 6 Minutes

Due date: Tuesday 4th August (Week 3)

Please note:

You may use notes to assist your presentation but eye contact and natural, expressive speech is expected. You are also expected to engage your audience with a few relevant discussion questions.
